In line with the current trend of the platform economy, AKQ's profit mechanism has become one of the main pillars for its rapid global expansion and high employee participation.

MAIN SOURCE OF PROFIT: ORDER-DRIVEN PROFIT MODEL

AKQ's main revenue comes from advertising contracts signed with clients such as international travel agencies, national cultural promotion agencies and high-end hotel groups. These contracts typically relate to the following:

- Brand display tasks (advertising graphics, videos, H5 interaction, etc.)
- Multilingual content localization products
- Multi-channel delivery and public opinion management
- Planning and conducting marketing activities

Clients set prices based on service cycles, regional coverage, content release and other parameters, and AKQ routes employees around the world through the platform to complete tasks and report results for efficient execution.

COMPOSITION OF INCOME OF EMPLOYEES AND USERS

The AKQ platform directly distributes 60%–70% of order revenue between employees and referrers who complete tasks, including the following types of revenue:

1. STANDING COMMISSION

Employees can earn a suitable base income by completing advertising tasks set by the platform every day; Tasks are rewarded differently depending on the quality and quantity of completion.

2. RECOMMENDATION REWARD MECHANISM

- Officials can invite others to join the platform as interns;
- Once interns become permanent employees, those who recommend will receive a one-time reward and an ongoing profit share from completing tasks.

3. MANAGEMENT DIVIDENDS SYSTEM

- Employees who have subordinate teams can receive management incentives based on the performance of their team members;
- The platform has a tier mechanism and points incentive model to support team size expansion and leveling up.

4. FINANCIAL FUND PLAN

- Official employees can participate in the cooperation platform plan with a portion of their income to obtain medium- and short-term investment returns;
- Offer a variety of combined income plans to adapt to different risk preferences.

PROFIT MODEL AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION MECHANISM

PROFIT EXPANSION MECHANISM

To meet the needs of more users for profits, AKQ has also created the following two scalable money-making mechanisms:

1. MECHANISM OF PARTICIPATION OF THE FINANCIAL FUND

Users can choose to participate in the digital fund plan launched by the platform, with a part of the reward for completing the task. The system will distribute dividends according to the performance of the fund, which belongs to the medium and long-term profit model. The fund's income is calculated on a periodic basis, and cash withdrawal and withdrawal are supported at any time. The platform transparently discloses the fund's fund flow and historical return rate for each period.

2. COMMISSION INVITATION SYSTEM

For each new participant who successfully requests a registered real name and completes the task, the invitee will receive 6%–20% of the participant's task income as a referral reward (without affecting the referrer's initial income). The more invitations, the higher the income. The referral mechanism is unlimited, which is suitable for users who want to create long-term network assets.

SYSTEMATIC PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND SETTLEMENT MECHANISM

With its built-in intelligent settlement system, the AKQ platform achieves the following:

- Daily statistics, weekly updates and monthly calculations of all income

- Profit distribution data can be viewed in real time, and the withdrawal process is safe and convenient

- All revenue sources and distribution details can be tracked to eliminate black boxes and delays

PROFIT MODEL AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION MECHANISM

WIN-WIN CONCEPT: INCOME GROWTH AND SOCIAL VALUE GO HAND IN HAND

AKQ believes that a truly sustainable business model must consider employee benefits, customer value, and social contribution. Through this profit sharing mechanism, AKQ not only encourages employees from around the world to participate in the creation of the platform, but also promotes employment, improves digital skills, and stimulates regional economic vitality in key markets such as South African market.

OVERVIEW OF THE PLATFORM'S REVENUE MODEL

To meet the time, resources, and development goals of different users, the AKQ platform provides five combined and advanced income generation methods, forming a complete income system:
